

Web Developer

Candidate will serve as a Web Developer for the Intranet/Internet project.

Candidate understands, develops, implements, and maintains intranet content and would require expertise in the following areas:

- Best practices in web development methodologies.
- Content development and implementation in web site publishing frameworks.
- Testing content created by other team members for completeness and correctness.
- Must have demonstrated expertise in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, XML/XSL.
- Familiarity with Adobe Photoshop, TSQL and PL/SQL, C# and object oriented concepts is a plus.

Candidate ensures project management and defined software development standards and procedures are followed. Satisfies requirements, meets agreed to completion date(s), and performs tests for products developed. Good team working skills and meticulous attention to detail is a must.

General Qualifications:

The candidate needs to have at least 2+ years of experience working on large corporate sites in interactive web site management frameworks. Must have demonstrated expertise in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, XML/XSL and Adobe Photoshop. The candidate would need some familiarity with C#, TSQL, PL SQL and basic object oriented concepts. Familiarity with SharePoint 2007 is a plus. The opportunity offers amazing potential for learning, and professional growth. Good team working skills and meticulous attention to detail is a must.

Duties & Responsibilities include:

1. Communicating with users and accepting content in various forms, such as excel sheets, word documents, pdf etc.
2. Work with the System architect on content architecture and work distribution.
3. Setup content architecture in a current site structure, with emphasis on end users being able to maintain their content themselves.
4. Responsible for providing support to end users in helping them maintain content on their various web pages.
5. Responsible for providing support to tech writers in helping them create training materials that would help assist end users in maintaining their content.
6. Communicates with end users, team lead and team members, the details of the proposed design, and progress on the work.
7. Responsible for estimating and sticking with effort estimates and timelines.

8. Responsible for following project management / lifecycle development processes, procedures database standards to achieve quality assurance.
9. Responsible for creating test standards and documents, and reviewing team members work for quality assurance purposes.

US Citizenship or Green Card requires